

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 23, to Saturday September 27, 1746.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 25th Day of September 1746.

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, That the Parliament which stands prorogued to Tuesday the Thirtieth of this Instant September, should be further prorogued to Tuesday the Eighteenth Day of November next.

From the Camp at Altare, Sept. 9, N. S. Upon the Advices we received at Cairo that the Enemy were hastening their Retreat towards Provence, we marched hither Yesterday; as soon as our Troops appeared upon the Mountains, the French and Genoese Detachments abandoned the several Posts they still held between this Camp and Savona, without so much as making the least Shew of Opposition; and in the greatest Hurry and Disorder, inasmuch that our Volunteers and Grenadiers, who immediately followed them, could not possibly reach them. Baron Falkenberg, who was at the Head of this Van-guard, approached Savona, from whence the Deputies offered to open the Gates of the Town: That Gentleman's insisting upon the Fortress's being delivered at the same Time into his Hands, occasioned some Parly, but the Governor of the Castle having declared he had nothing to do with the Town, and that he neither could nor would give up the Place without Orders from Genoa, Baron Falkenberg took Possession of the Town alone. Our large Artillery is upon the Road and near at Hand, and when it has joined us, we make no doubt of being able to give a good Account of the Castle in a few Days. Marquis Balbian, with 10 Battalions under his Command, is marched this Morning from his Camp in the Valley of Tanaro towards Final, and is order'd to attack the Enemy, if possible, in their Retreat towards that Part of the Riviera.

Savona, Sept. 9, N. S. The Austrians remain in and about Genoa, and the Army under the King of Sardinia has taken Possession of this Place. His Majesty perceiving that the Enemy were retiring in the utmost Disorder, has taken Advantage of that Opportunity, and ordered all their Posts to be attacked. M. d'Entremont having marched by Saffello, with 1000 Foot and eight Companies of Grenadiers, the Enemy abandoned it upon his Approach. M. de la Trinité, with a Brigade, forced the Enemy at the Post of St. Giacomo near les Malires. M. de la Sauriere, who commanded the Volunteers, has driven the Enemy from the Eminences which they were in Possession of near Montenot. M. de Falkenberg, who had the Command of 15 Companies of Grenadiers, having marched to Gadebon and the Tower des Corfes, attack'd the Enemy there, who quickly retired to this Place, whither we pursued them, and drove them from hence, thereupon, fearing to be cut off by the Corps under M. de la Trinité, they retreated by Vado on the Side of Final, and our Troops took Possession of Savona. The Castle has been summoned to surrender; and unless the Governor thinks proper to submit upon the Arrival of our Artillery, we shall begin to batter it. The King arrived here this Morning. We took some Prisoners Yesterday, amongst whom is a Quarter-master General of the Spanish Horse. Don Philip left this Place Yesterday Morning, and was to be at Final last Night. M. de la Trinité is at Vado, with one Brigade, and the Volunteers are to join him there this Day. M. le Marquis de Balbian, who has under him ten Battalions, is to march To-morrow towards Final and Albinga. This Morning at Break of Day, an advanced Guard from M. Nadaffi arrived here, and was much surpris'd to find us before-hand with them. They are in Possession of the Country from Genoa to Javon, as we shall soon be of that from Savona to Oneille.

Savona, Sept. 9, N. S. at Night. The Army is just arrived, and is encamped in the Neighbourhood of this Town. Don Philip, with Marquis la Mine, departed from hence but Yesterday at Noon, and the Rear Guard pass'd the Bridge between this and Vado, but two Hours before Sun set. The French left that Post to be defended by the Spaniards, who got off unhurt, as the Night was drawing on and too late for us to engage in a Pursuit in a Country like this. Commodore Townshend and his Squadron are expected here To-morrow or next Day.

Copenhagen, Sept. 20. Yesterday in the Evening a Lieutenant in the Sea Service, who had been sent as an Express from the small Danish Squadron in the Mediterranean, arrived here. It is said that he has brought News that a Peace is concluded between this Court and the Algerines, and that the aforesaid Men of War propose to return hither in the Month of October. His Danish Majesty goes this Afternoon to Fredericksbourg, proposing to hold the Friday's Council there, and not to come back before Saturday next. By Advices from Elfenore, his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Rose, with one of the Merchant-men belonging to the Baltick Fleet, arrived there on the 18th Instant, late in the Evening, and the Night following a few more of the Trade dropped in, but the Commodore and the rest were kept a-stern by bad Weather and contrary Winds.

Vienna, Sept. 22, N. S. The following is the Capitulation of the City of Genoa, Sept. 7, 1746.

Article I. That all the Gates of the City shall be delivered to the Troops of her Imperial Majesty, Queen of Hungary and Bohemia.

II. The Garrison of the City of Genoa shall remain Prisoners of War. The Deserters who declare themselves such immediately after the present Convention, shall be pardoned; but those who do not discover themselves instantly, shall be hanged.

III. All the Artillery, Arms, Implements of War, and Ammunition, found in Genoa, shall be given up to the Empress's Commander of the Artillery; but all Provisions made for the Subsistence of the Troops, in which is comprehended Cloth, Regimentals, and such like Necessaries, shall be delivered to the Imperial Commissary.

IV. The Republick shall order all her Subjects, Soldiers, and Militia, so long as this War shall subsist, not to commit any Hostility against the Empress's Troops, nor any of her Allies, or other Persons depending upon her Imperial Majesty.

V. Immediately after the signing of this Capitulation, free Access shall be given to all English Ships into the Port of Genoa, as well as to those of other Nations, who are Allies or Friends to her Imperial Majesty.

VI. All the Effects and Moveables belonging to the French, Spaniards, and Neapolitans, shall be faithfully delivered to the Deputy Commissary who shall be authorized to receive them, and the Republick shall discover and give up all the French, Spaniards, and Neapolitans, who are in Genoa, or the circumjacent Places.

VII. If the Castle of Gavi is not yet in Possession of the Imperial Troops, the Republick shall immediately dispatch Orders to the Commander to surrender himself and the Garrison Prisoners of War to Velt Marshal Prince Piccolomini.

VIII. Free Passage shall be granted at all Times, and upon all Occasions, to the Imperial Troops through Genoa, and all other Places and Fortresses belonging to the Republick.

IX. The Doge, with six of the principal Senators, shall repair, within the Space of one Month, to Vienna, to implore the Empress's Clemency, and to beg her Imperial Majesty's Pardon for the Faults they have committed.

X. All her Majesty's Officers, as well as those of her Allies, who have been made Prisoners of War during this War, and all other Persons depending upon her Imperial Majesty and her Allies, taken in the Territories of Genoa, shall have their Liberty from the Day of the Signature of the present Convention.

XI. Fifty thousand Sequins shall be incessantly paid and divided between her Majesty's Troops, independently of the Contributions, upon which the Republick will come to an Agreement with Lieutenant Velt Marshal Colonel Commissary Count de Chotek, upon which Footing the Troops shall be obliged to keep good Order, and pay for every thing with ready Money.

XII. This provisional Convention shall have its Force till it shall be signed or otherwise order'd by her Majesty. In the mean time, four Senators shall be sent to Milan as Hostages, and shall stay there till the Court of Vienna will permit them to return. The present Convention shall be signed by the Doge and all the Senators, in the Name of the Republick, and each of them shall set his particular Seal to it.

From the Camp at Nedercan, Sept. 24, N. S.

The French continue to intrench themselves very strongly, tho' they have been rejoined by a Corps under the Command of Lieutenant General Segur, which served at the Siege of Namur. On Wednesday last the Enemy made an Attempt to dislodge Count Esterhasi from his Post on the other Side the Jaire, and for this Purpose a Party of their Foot took Possession of the Village of Sluis, whilst a Detachment of Horse was sent round the Village in order to attack him in Flank. The Austrian General order'd his People to advance, drove the Enemy quite behind the Village, and then sent the Free Companies in the Dutch Service to attack them, which was executed with so much Vigour, that they soon got Possession of the Church Yard, and took 40 of the Enemy Prisoners; but the French being superior in Number, and having occupied all the Houses, our Men were obliged to retire a little; thereupon Prince Waldeck sent the Dutch Picquets, under the Command of Major General Glinstra, to march to their Assistance: And the Attack being renewed, after a brisk Action the Village was forced, and the French fled to the Plain, whither Count Esterhasi pursued them with so much Diligence, that they were all taken or kill'd; the Number of Prisoners amounts to above 150, some of which are since dead of their Wounds; and we have lost about 80 Men kill'd and wounded: Amongst the first is the Captain Lieutenant Van Baayen, and a Lieutenant of Franck's Regiment, and amongst the latter is Captain Murray of Colyear's first Battalion, and two Lieutenants of Foot, and two of the Free Companies.

Munich, Sept. 26, N. S. The second Division of the Bavarian Corps is by this Time on the other Side of Mergenthall, and the Prince of Hilburghausen designs to set out in three or four Days for Donawert, from whence it is thought his Highness will send off the last Division in the Course of this Month.

Berlin, Sept. 27, N. S. His Prussian Majesty is expected in Town on Sunday next, and it is said that his intended Journey into Prussia this Winter is laid aside.

Camp of the Allies at Heerden, Sept. 28, N. S. We remain in this Camp within Cannon Shot of the Enemy, and have frequent Skirmishes, in which we have had the better.

Bonn, Sept. 29. The two first Regiments of the Bavarian Subsidiary Troops arrive at Mulheim To-day, and pass the Rhine the 2d or 3d of next Month. General Siebel, who commands them, is here, and the rest are expected to follow without Loss of Time.

Brussels, Sept. 29, N. S. The two Armies have been in Sight of, and not above a Quarter of a League Distant from each other for above these three Days past. The French are intrenching themselves, and have fortified their Camp very strongly.

Hambourg, Sept. 30, N. S. Their Polish Majesties, who set out in the Morning of the 12th of this Month from Dresden, arrived in perfect Health at Warsaw upon the 16th about Noon. Their Majesties were accidentally overturned in their Coach near Peterkau, but received no Hurt. Few of the Polish Noblemen were arrived at Warsaw, but as most of them were upon their Journey, they were daily expected at that Place.

Hague, Sept. 27, N. S. The Garrison of Namur, very little weakened by the Defence of the Town, though the Breach is assured to have been 50 Paces broad, is all entered into the Castle, having been able to obtain but two Days for its evacuating the Town. The French have proceeded to the Attack of the Castle. Brigadier General Houghton's Brigade is now in Motion towards the Allied Army, and encamps this Night in the Neighbourhood of Breda.

Hague, Sept. 30, N. S. Count Wassenauer Twickel set out for Breda last Wednesday Noon, and the Earl of Sandwich the same Evening. M. Gilles proposes to follow those Gentlemen the Day after To-morrow. The Court of Vienna has named for that Commission young Count Ferdinand Harrach, Brother to the Count of that Name, who was formerly the Empress's Plenipotentiary in the Netherlands. We have no material Advice from our Army since the 27th. We hourly expect to hear of the Loss of the Cittadel of Namur, which cannot but be accelerated by the uncommon Desertion that, according to several Accounts, there is amongst the Garrison, and still more so by the Misfortune of a Powder Magazine's blowing up on the 27th past. This Morning M. de le Bascour, Nephew to the Pensionary of Amsterdam, was unanimously named by the States General to succeed M. Gilles in the Post of their High Mightinesses's Second Greffier; and that Gentleman having thereupon resigned his former Post of Treasurer General to the Union, the same was disposed of by a Majority of the Provinces in Favour of M. Vander Does, one of the Judges of the High Court of Holland and Zealand. The Genoese Secretary has presented a Memorial to the States, intreating their good Offices with the Empress Queen of Hungary, and the same has been transmitted to M. Burmannia at Vienna.

Hague, October 4, N. S. We have received Advice, that the Commandant of the Cittadel of Namur hung out the White Flag upon Friday last, and surrendered Prisoner of War with his Garrison. The advanced Guard of the French Army, which was at Hasselt, has made a Motion towards Warem. This Morning died, greatly regretted, of the Gout in his Stomach, in the 87th Year of his Age, M. Francis Fagel; late Greffier to the States General.

London, September 1, 1746.
General Post-Office.

Whereas certain Information has been made, upon Oath, before one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, that the Ch-ster Mail, of the 2d of July last, was robbed by a Person who goes, or has gone by the several Names of GABRIEL TOMKINS, alias YOUNG GIBB, alias KIT JERVIS, alias CHRISTOPHER WOOD, alias UNKLE, alias RAWLINS, who has been formerly a Smugler, and was some Years since employed as a Riding Surveyor in the Service of the Customs, and some Years ago lived at the Town of Dartford, in the County of Kent: He is a Man of between Forty and Fifty Years of Age, of a very fawarthy Complexion, somewhat marked with the Small Pox, about Five Foot Nine or Ten Inches high, is a very well made Man, walks very upright, with large dark Eyebrows, which hang over his Eyes, and has formerly received a Wound in his Left Arm with a Pistol or Musquet Bullet, of which some Mark or Appearance is left.

* * By Intelligence received, since the first Printing of this Advertisement, the above described Gabbeen Accomplices in the said Robbery, who will moreover be intitled to His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

N. B. A suitable Reward and Encouragement is hereby offered, and will be given to any Person or Persons, who shall apprehend a Woman, who goes or has gone by the several Names of Anne Hocks, alias Hawkswell, alias Mathews, alias Cameron, and pretends to be the Wife of a French Officer. She is a Person of between briel Tomkins has a small Wart or Wen at the Corner of one of his Eye-brows, next to his Nose, and is said to appear in a shabby brown duffil Coat, much pieced and torn, and trimmed with white metal Buttons, a deep blue Waistcoat, and an old light or lightish Wig turned Yellow with the Wearing.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whatever Person or Persons shall apprehend the said Gabriel Tomkins, so that he be brought to Justice, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds on the Conviction of the said Gabriel Tomkins over and above what is allowed by Act of Parliament for the apprehending of Highwaymen. The same Reward and Encouragement is offer'd to any who may have Thirty and Forty Years of Age, of a fair Complexion, and about Five Foot Six Inches high, somewhat pitted with the Small Pox, and has the Letters A. H. prick'd in upon one of her Hands with Indian Ink or Gun powder, and it is supposed she does now, or has lately accompanied Gabriel Tomkins above described.

Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Sept. 24, 1746.

The Commissioners of his Majesty's Royal Hospital at Greenwich, hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 25th of March next, or as soon after as may be, will be Let on Lease for Twenty one Years, at Salters Hall in London, the following Lead Mines in the Derwent-water Estate, viz. Couperhole head, Goringill, Nentsberry Green Ends, ditto North Vein, Middle Vein, Cud-damgill moss, Nenthead Field, Downpottyske, Garrigill Burn Old Grove, Doadberry Dike Head, Clargill Meadows, Clargill Clough head, Coss Burn, Cornriggs, Gate castle, Middleyske, Scar ends, Lee House, Low-birchby bank, Broomberry West of Tyne, Gillhouse burn, Howburn moss, Park Grove, Horse edge, Slaty mea, Broomberry East of Nent, Guttergill, How Blagill, High birchby bank, Rodderup Clough, Greenbill fike or Green Craig, Nentsberry Hagg, Green Castle, Baxton Edge, Bale bill or Farrenberry, N° Vein of Fletcherist Foot, Brownly bill, Longhole head East End, Windy-brow, Dryburn, Rampgill head near Killop head, Red-groves Edge, Blagill green Ends, Burns Intack, Long Clough, Middle Clough, Fletcherist, Green grove or Band End, Rock Hill, and Taylor fike Foot: as also will be Lett at the same Time on Lease for 21 Years from May Day next, Throckley Mill, with the Appurtenances thereunto belonging, late in the Possession of William Trumble, and now in the Possession of Thomas Bell, and a House and Garth or Garden, at Meldon, late in the Possession of Ralph Thompson, and now in the Possession of Mr. Andrew Bullock, or their under Tenants. And all Persons desirous to take any of the said Lead Mines or Farms, with their Appurtenances aforesaid, may give in their Proposals in Writing, directed to Mr. Richard Horne, at the Pay Office in Broad-street, London, or to Mess. Walton and Beag, at Ravensworth Castle near Durham.

Westminster Fire-Office, Sept. 25, 1746.

The Directors of the said Office do hereby give Notice, That a General Meeting of the Contributors will